This slim volume contains four tales of murder, mystery and intrigue - The Mistletoe Murder / A Very Commonplace Murder / The Boxdale Inheritance / The Twelve Clues Of Christmas. Two of the tales feature a younger Adam Dalgliesh. To my utter delight these are tales, mostly, very much in the vein of Golden Age crime.

The Mistletoe Murders and Other Stories is a wonderful way to reconnect with this great author after her passing in 2014, and with a foreword by Val McDermid and an excellent dust cover featuring a woodcut style illustration, you'll want to grab the hardback rather than go for Kindle. Crime short stories are a challenge for some authors.
